

FRESH FACE 2012 AT THE OXFORD COLLEGES MSR CAMPUS.

BANGALORE IS TA

A DANCE REPUBLIC

Clean & Clear Bangalore Times Fresh Face 2012 at Oxford College was a fun-packed extravaganza. Students made a beeline to participate and danced without any inhibitions. Sandalwood actor Tilak, and RJ Sudesh, remained glued to their seats, without a trace of boredom.

Dance seemed to be the theme of the event, as boys and girls got onstage to shake a leg. Some of the boys even danced to Sheila Ki Jawani, which was very entertaining. While the contest saw many interesting dance performances, it was Prabin Sayami's beat boxing that wowed the judges and drew many hoots from the audience. He even called a friend onstage, and what ensued was a beat-box, rap ensemble, which had everyone tapping their feet.

During the Q and A round, RJ Sudesh put the contestants to many tasks, which they sportingly agreed to. From describing their crush, to proposing to the judges — the participants from Oxford College were game to do just about anything and everything under the sun. Rinosh George's singing struck a chord with everyone, and he was declared the winner among the boys. Naikas PN and Rauf Beigh were adjudged first and second runners up. Shantasri Chatterjee's dance moves won her the first place, while Bindu Reddy and Jyothi Singh were adjudged first and second runners up, among the girls.
